

B.S. in Communication Studies

Why study Communication Studies at TU in Northeastern Maryland?

Skills learned in communication studies courses are repeatedly listed in the top 5 skills sought by employers. Communication graduates are trained to think deeply about how communication processes relate to many of today's important issues. Our graduates understand that effective communication can bring people together across cultural contexts, and they know how to communicate with care and respect for others' beliefs. The major provides both theory and research as well as applicable skills that will prepare students for a variety of careers. Students in this program take advantage of a variety of different opportunities including:

Internships: Communication Studies students have a robust track record interning in positions where they practice and perfect practical communication skills, which carry students into their futures. Students gain excellence in areas as diverse as community outreach, market research, social media management, organizational communication, fundraising, and event planning. On-going internship placements include The National Aquarium, The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, Royal Farms Arena, Baltimore Orioles, Girl's Life Magazine, among others.

Study Abroad Programs: Interested in traveling abroad? Towson's Communication Studies Study Abroad Program offers you the opportunity to broaden your perspective and your education at the same time. Open your mind to what the world has to offer while furthering your degree in Communication Studies with faculty led Study Abroad elective courses(3 credit), including: • TU Identity, Expression, and Social Action in Scotland • Global Competence & Communication in Barcelona, Spain • Corporate Communication in the UK

Selected Faculty Profiles

Dr. Audra McMullen Dr. Audra McMullen, Professor and TUNE Program Coordinator, specializes in interpersonal communication, organizational communication, and communication training. Working with students outside of the traditional classroom is where she finds the greatest pleasure. She enjoys leading study abroad programs and advising the COMM Club and the Pi Kappa Delta honorary. Her quantitative research agenda focuses on pedagogical practices and her qualitative research focuses on community building. Currently, she is investigating how drystone wall festivals bring people together in a concept called "Civic Communion."

Dr. Michaela Frischherz Dr. Frischherz earned her Ph.D. in Communication Studies from the University of Iowa in May of 2015. She also holds a M.A. in Cultural Analysis from the Universiteit van Amsterdam and a B.A. in Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs from Miami University, Ohio. Dr. Frischherz specializes in rhetorical theory and criticism with an emphasis on feminist and queer theory. Dr. Frischherz teaches rhetorical theory and criticism, sexual communication, and communication and gender.

Dr. Jennifer Potter Dr. Potter earned her Ph.D. from Howard University in Communication and Culture in 2008. She earned her MA in Communication Studies at University of Northern Iowa in 2005 and her BA in Communication, Sociology, and Political Science from Cornell College in 2001. Dr. Potter's research agenda has never been defined by a specific method or field of study, but instead has been propelled by her interest in specific artifacts related to gender and race. Dr. Potter teaches courses in Intercultural Communication, Research Methods, Gender and Communication, and Social Protest.

Three Reasons to Apply

Same Quality Programs. Same Quality Degree.

- Established partnerships with local community colleges provide a seamless transfer and assure maximum transfer credit.
- All programs are Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC) approved and, if applicable, accredited by their specific professional organization.
- The same high caliber instructors teaching on main campus also teach courses at Towson University in Northeastern Maryland (TUNE).
- Students receive a bachelor's degree awarded by Towson University. The programs at TUNE are identical to those on main campus.

Save Money.

- Fulltime TUNE students save more than $1,500 per year on fees as compared to students on the main campus. Tuition amounts are the same at both locations.
- Parking is free and convenient.
- TUNE students save on room and board, which costs approximately $11,000 per academic year on the main campus.
- Students are eligible for the same Financial Aid packages (grants, scholarship, loans, etc.) that are awarded to main campus students. In order to be considered, students must submit the FAFSA by the posted deadline.
- Student employment opportunities are available on-site.

Convenient. Close to Home.

- Program advisors and admissions representatives hold regular office hours on-site.
- Select programs offer internship opportunities in the region.
- TUNE's Director of Student Services organizes diverse student life activities and events to bring the full college experience to TUNE.
- Students may purchase from TU's main campus UStore, textbooks, class materials, TU apparel, and much more and the items will be delivered to their home.
- Food, beverages, and snacks are available on-site at the TUNE café, vending machines, and food pantry, which is located in the student lounge.

How to Apply

1. To access the online application, please visit our webpage at www.towson.edu/tune and click the “Apply Now” button. You can also visit the application directly at www.towson.edu/applytune.
2. Please read the application instructions carefully. Allow yourself approximately 20-30 minutes to fully complete the application. A $50 non-deferrable, non-refundable fee is required with your application. Payment may be made with a credit card or electronic check.
3. Remember to send official transcripts from all previously attended colleges and universities to Admissions via email to: Admissions_Documents@towson.edu [Some schools will send electronically to TU.]

or via postal mail to: Towson University
Office of Undergraduate Admissions
8000 York Road
Towson, MD 21252
4. Some majors have additional requirements or screening criteria, such as prerequisite courses, supplemental applications, GPA requirements, or passing Praxis scores. Admission to Towson University does not guarantee entry into these majors. The following programs at TUNE have additional requirements: Business Administration, Education, and Nursing.

The Deadlines

The final application deadline is June 1 for fall admission. The application will remain open on a space-available basis.

To be considered for merit-based scholarships offered through the University, your TU application and official transcripts must be submitted by March 1.

The TU Priority Deadline for the FASFA is usually in mid-January and posted at www.towson.edu/finaid.

Questions?
