

OSHER CODE OF CONDUCT

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Towson University adheres to a policy of mutual respect between members, instructors, volunteers, staff, and the campus community. By joining Osher at Towson University, members agree to uphold the shared values of mutual respect, personal and academic integrity, and civil discourse.

- Members will not behave in a hostile, dismissive, or derogatory way toward anyone in the Osher community or others in University community.
- Members will be tolerant and respectful of diverse opinions and thinking.
- Members will not be disruptive in class or other activities.
- Members will adhere to the rules and policies stated in Towson University's Continuing and Professional Studies Code of Conduct.

The success of this policy relies on each participating individual upholding these values so that everyone can enjoy this educational community.

Osher members should contact the Director if there are any concerns or if they have witnessed behavior that is in violation of this Code of Conduct. The Director, in consultation with the Council Chair and the Osher Advisor, will investigate the issue and take the appropriate action to address any violations.
