

FirstName LastName

Towson, MD • tstudent@gmail.com • (410) 555-5555

EDUCATION

Towson University, Towson, MD

Bachelor of Science in Religious Studies

May 20xx

Dean's List: Fall 20xx-Spring 20xx

GPA: 3.7

RELATED COURSE WORK

Women in World Religions

- Studied the role of women, both human and divine, in the major Asian and Western religions

Judaism, Christianity and Islam

- Studied history, scriptures, doctrines, practices and interactions of three monotheistic religions

Cultural Anthropology

- Studied cultural theory, social structure, human ecology, language and culture, technology, religion, art, and literature

Introduction to Asian Philosophy

- Examined of the nature of Asian thought through a study of English translations of traditional sources of Indian, Tibetan, Chinese, and Japanese philosophy

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

American Humanist Association, Washington, D.C.

May 20xx - August 20xx

Editorial Intern

- Reviewed submissions, fact-checked manuscripts, and magazine articles, proofread for the national award-winning magazine, the Humanist
- Wrote three 500-1,500-word editorials, book reviews, and articles each day about values and equality for humanists, atheists, freethinkers, and the non-religious across the country
- Managed the online magazine by answering questions and sending feedback to editors

Religion for Peace, New York, NY

May 20xx - August 20xx

Intern

- Studied existing program values to complete 13 grant applications for three departments
- Researched, designed, and implemented a 150-person religious studies program
- Assisted with advancing environmental communications and building interreligious communities

MEMBERSHIPS/AFFILIATIONS

Towson University Philosophy Forum, Towson, MD

August 20xx - Present

- Published six 1000 to 1,500-word journals for Annual Spring Undergraduate Conference

American Academy of Religion, Member

May 20xx - Present

- Meet members from 100+ nations to learn, share ideas, and propose solutions to world-wide religious issues