

Sander Senior Prize in History

Criteria

- One awarded each year
- Open to graduating Seniors
- Must be accepted to a graduate program in history or related field
- Based on merit (GPA & community involvement)

About this award

The Sander Senior Prize in History was established in 1997 by Robert H. and Ruth S. Sander who wanted to encourage "history scholars making a positive impact on national and international relations." The award is intended to help a graduating senior pay for post-graduate training in history or a related field. It is awarded on the basis of merit to a student who has been accepted to a graduate program.

Application

Date (m/d/yyyy):
Name:
TU ID#:
Major:
Year (Must be Senior):
GPA:
Program in history or related field that you have been accepted to:
Evidence of Community Involvement:

- GPA can be found on your unofficial transcript, available through PeopleSoft. GPA can also be calculated using the GPA Calculator provided by Towson's Office of the Registrar: <https://www.towson.edu/registrar/grades/calculator.html>
- By "merit," the committee means a demonstration of involvement, dedication, and excellence. Evidence of merit may include: involvement in extracurricular clubs; community service activities and organizations; involvement in Athletic clubs; artistic or creative performances; leadership roles; other: attach a personal statement if desired.