

Suggested MCOM Degree Completion Plan

The Department of Mass Communication has degree completion plans located at towson.edu/cofac/departments/mass-communication/resources/advising/degreecompletion.html. Please use those sample plans along with your Academic Requirements report (found in your Student Center) to draft a Degree Completion Plan for yourself here. Bring all of these documents with you to your advising meeting.

By signing this form, you acknowledge that your Degree Completion Plan is tentative and may change. It is not a guarantee of acceptance into the screened MCOM major, that certain classes will be available in certain semesters, or that you will graduate in a specific number of semesters. You also acknowledge that you must follow the degree requirements for your specific catalog year.
