- Section IV. Towson University Policy on the Use of the University's Name by Members of the Faculty
- Members of the faculty are encouraged to use the name of the University and official University stationery when representing the University in an official capacity. Faculty members may also publicly use their affiliation with the University in order to identify themselves. The University, however, does not wish to be identified with projects in which it has no official participation. Members of the faculty may not use the University name if such use can, in any way, be construed as implying University endorsement of any project, product, or service when such projects, products, or services are privately sponsored.
- Section V. Commencements, Convocations, and Faculty Meetings
- Commencements and Convocations must be attended in appropriate academic attire by faculty members who hold academic rank when requested to do so according to policies developed by departments and colleges, in fulfillment of their responsibility to participate in the life and governance of the University.
- Section VI. Policy on Named Chairs and Professorships
