

National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity Institutional Membership

NCFDD Institutional Membership provides an external mentoring community designed to help graduate students, post-docs and faculty members increase research and writing productivity and improve work-life balance.

NCFDD membership offers relevant professional development training, intense and reliable support from highly trained and successful mentors, a confidential “safe space” for problem solving, and a downloadable virtual format so members can learn at their convenience.

Membership Benefits:

- Greater success with publications and securing external funding for research
- Increased confidence as an independent researcher
- Healthier relationships with departmental colleagues
- Increased interactions with campus-based and external mentors, sponsors and collaborators
- Increased job satisfaction

Did you know?

NCFDD currently supports more than 88,000 graduate student, post-doc and faculty members from institutions all across the country!

Membership Includes:

- The Monday Motivator (weekly productivity email)
- Access to monthly core curriculum and guest expert webinars and multi-week courses
- Access to the Career Center
- Recordings of all previous webinars
- Access to moderated monthly writing challenges and monthly mentor matches
- Discounted Faculty Success Program registration
- Free access to online accountability and tracking software to alumni of the Faculty Success Program

How to Activate Your Institutional Sub-Account Membership

1. Visit www.FacultyDiversity.org/Registration.
2. Select your college/university's name from the list of Institutional Members.
3. After you have created a username and password, on the first page, enter your institution-issued e-mail address (i.e. @university.edu) to expedite the registration process.
4. Complete the registration process.
5. You will receive a welcome e-mail within 1-2 business days confirming that your account is active and that you can access the NCFDD resources.

"The supportive community that the NCFDD provides has given many of our faculty new ways to organize their work so that they can both be productive and have time for families and friends. Balance is the term that comes to mind, but it is more than that."
