I have a commitment to living in an alcohol-free community and agree to uphold the expectations listed above. I understand that failure to uphold the expectations of living on an Alcohol-Free Community may result in greater sanctioning during policy violations, including the possibility of relocation from the community. I understand that this commitment also extends to the guests I choose to bring into the building and that I will be held responsible for their actions.

Housing & Residence Life values discovery of self and others. It is encouraged that you are active and purposeful in your completion of the above expectations.
